

Opera wins the iF DESIGN AWARD 2020 for Opera GX, the world's first gaming browser

February 11, 2020

OSLO, Norway and BERLIN, Feb. 11, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Opera (NASDAQ: OPRA) is a winner of this year's iF DESIGN AWARD, the world-renowned design prize. Opera GX, the world's first gaming browser, won the award in the communication category. Each year, the iF DESIGN AWARD is organized by Hannover-based iF International Forum Design GmbH, the world's oldest independent design organization.

Opera GX won over the 78-member jury, made up of independent design experts from all over the world, with its unique design aimed at people who play and love computer games. The competition was intense: 7,298 entries were submitted from 56 countries in hopes of receiving the seal of quality.

Opera GX launched in 2019 during the E3 gaming convention in Los Angeles. The browser has a unique set of features designed to meet the specific needs of PC Gamers.

More information about Opera GX can be found in the iF WORLD DESIGN GUIDE or at <https://www.opera.com/gx>. Opera previously won the Red Dot Design Award for Opera GX.
